

Literacy Programs for Children and Young Adults

Staff of the Negotiations and Reconciliation Division of the Ministry of Aboriginal Affairs and Frontier College are interested in partnering with the Native Canadian Centre of Toronto.

The Ministry of Aboriginal Affairs will be providing the volunteers.
Programming could be offered as follows:

Reading Circles: (ages 4-10) once a week for about an hour making reading time both enjoyable and fun

Homework Clubs: for children and teens, one on one assistance with school work with a trained tutor. (Group tutoring also available)

Programs for Young Adults: literacy and basic skills training, GED preparation course and computer skills training available.

For more information and to register to sign up:
Please contact the Native Canadian Centre of Toronto

416.964.9087

reception@ncct.on.ca